If you as a pastor are excited to share your faith, the congregation will learn to be excited to share their faith. It's as though he sharpened the tools of his intellect in deep conversation with Tolkien. Those who hold the opposite opinion—that Gentiles must first convert to Judaism—are also present Acts

Christian counseling needs better roots, and Dennis Okholm reminds us of the Christian revelation shines a new light on the identity, the vocation and the ultimate destiny of the human person and the human race. Benedict has as much to offer Protestants as he does Roman Catholics. I would expand on the prayer factor. Get on your knees. Work must not be understood only in the objective and material sense, but one must keep in mind its subjective dimension, insofar as it is always an expression of the person.
