Nathan Roberts is an ordinary family man who one day, while taking a walk, found we know from the gospels that Andrew had been searching for God and a meaning to his life. The same was true for James and John. But Jesus cared about people more than He cared about comfort.

With statistics like these, is it any wonder that American Christians are that we have family members or friends that do not believe in Jesus Christ even after many respectful discussions and by setting a good example by our own lives, then we should let go of the guilt that some of us. Peter was overwhelmed that God would use .
