The students should practise this in small sections by analysing the music first. The first movement is in sonata form, modeled on older Romantic music and atypical of Shostakovich. It now moves toward B-flat minor. A lot of basic things are essential to playing this piece: beauty of tone, cantabile style, a feeling for dance, articulation, evenness of fingerwork in the runs, trills, sensitivity to harmonies and their progressions, and perhaps above all Sonata in D Minor certain poignancy of feeling which for me is most evident in the final bars.
