rambles through then pivots and twists, quick as any athlete on a court. And I had barely begun his first piece about tennis player Roger Federer's near mystical Both Flesh And Not before I was happily rewarded with his amazing ability to pull me into a subject I knew nothing about, infect me with his own fascination and wonder for said subject, and make me think outside of the normal patters of my own lazy brain, all while giving me the sensation that this genius was taking the time to do these things for me personally.
