The country was driven off the gold standard in In the popular view, the Smoot-Hawley Tariff was a leading cause of the depression. Striking images taken in the s show a shivering child sitting barefoot in the snow as he digs for scraps of coal to fend off the cold.

Facedwiththegreatestdeprivationmanywouldeverknow,familiesstruggled Children's Bureau's Child Health Recovery Conference on October 6, called for emergency food relief, school lunch programs, funds to pay the salaries of public nurses, and reimbursement plans to pay private physicians to care for needy children. The intent of the Act was to encourage the purchase of American-made products by increasing the cost of imported goods, while raising revenue for the federal government and protecting farmers.
