Description Salvador Novo was a provocative and prolific cultural presence in Mexico City through much of the twentieth century. John Hendrix drew upon his own varied experiences for this panoramic view of West Texas ranch life, presented here in an integral compilation of flavorful articles written originally for The Cattleman.

Pages and cover are clean and intact. He broke free when two of his captors fell to gunfire, and he ran, in his underwear, three miles through the cold night into the desert. Size: 8vo.
