This is the best novel in all the thrillers and paranormal romance novels I have read in a year! Newirth is told that he, too, has powers that haven't developed. A Note From the Publisher.

It wasn't even that the plot bends your mind so that you're never quite steady, I just wanted an answer. She helps writers develop their ideas, critiques manuscripts, line edits and ghostwrites material. Loche Newirth is a psychologist whose patient has recently committed suicide He feels he is somehow to blame and has written a journal that he leaves behind when he suddenly takes off to escape any accusations.

The story structure and writing style made the story confusing. That's saying a lot, because I have a damn good imagination!
