Rather than justifying the inherent racism of Conrads portrayal of the African native, the analysis attributes it to the uncertainties about contemporary literate culture which clearly pervaded metadiscursive reflection at the time. Larger disturbances turn them black. The effect is to reveal the deceitfulness of Becky's art—a disguise that now seems obvious in the language . Gross, Theodore L. Projecting onto literary texts a view of illiteracy as a transitory condition to be either transcended in the process of learning a script or escaped by resorting to an alternative medium, literary critics have ignored the possibility that illiteracy may be introduced into a literary text as a structure that constitutes meaning even without having to be resolved or transformed. Adriana, Juan Carlos Ortiz. Lista revisada, actualizada y comentada.

A highly sensitive individual, he fails to realize the impersonal, essential nature of dramatic comedy, the ending in prosperity that the Knight prefers so much to the sudden fall of tragic characters usually takes the form of marriage.
